

ABUELO CAYO

Tempranillo Blanco 2023

Bodegas Quiroga de Pablo is now in its 6th generation run by Juan Luis, Diego, and Maite, maintaining the family tradition. The family has been growing grapes and producing wine in their estate bodega since 1850. The original bodega was built in a 25 - 35 feet underground cellar and continues to be used in the production and aging of the wines.

Tasting notes: Elegant and intense aromatics on the nose, combining tropical and citrus fruits, complemented with white fruit and flowers. Fresh, well balanced, with a long and pleasant finish.

DOCa Rioja: Located in Northern Spain, it is the oldest wine region in Spain. Rioja is synonymous with wine; nearly every business in Rioja is related to the wine industry in some way. There are 3 sub zones: Rioja Alavesa, Rioja Alta, and Rioja Baja, each with its own soil makeup the most prestigious containing large deposits of limestone. Flanking Rioja to the north and west, the Cantabrian Mountains provide shelter from the Atlantic creating a warmer and drier microclimate than regions further North.
