

HINOJOSA
DESDE 1940

BARRICAS

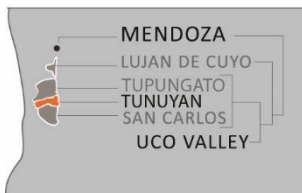

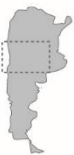

Malbec 2022

BARRICAS
MALBEC

ARGENTINA

Barricas: These wines are produced with hand-harvested grapes from Tunuyan and Tupungato, Mendoza, one of Argentina's top wine regions. These fun and young wines are focused on balance, elegance and varietal typicity (accurate expression of each variety's characteristic aromas and flavors).

Tasting notes: Vivid purple varietal wine is round and medium bodied. It has boysenberry and cherry aromas, with hints of violets and vanilla. In the mouth it is round and friendly, with fine tannin notes and a charming finish. Barricas Malbec is one of the best values we have found in Argentina.

Winemaker: Jose Hinojosa

Appellation: Uco Valley (Tunuyan), Mendoza, Argentina

Grapes: 100% Malbec

Soil: Generally alluvial with a clay/rock base and sandy stony surface.

Elevation: 4,000 ft

Vineyard practice: Dry farming. Hand harvested.

Harvest Dates: March

Fermentation: Temperature controlled fermentation in stainless steel tanks and cement pools. No oak aging.

Aging: None

Alc: 13.5% UPC: 8 10148 01005 8

Tunuyan, Mendoza: Tunuyan is considered by most experts as one of the best regions in the world for growing Malbec grapes. At an altitude of 4000 feet, with pure and clean water from the Andes mountains, varietals like Cabernet Sauvignon and Malbec thrives producing excellent wines with expressive fruit and complex structure.

Other Wines:

BARRICAS Cabernet Sauvignon

