

Calathus Malbec

Tupungato, Uco Valley, Mendoza, Argentina

Finca Don Carlos has been crafting outstanding artisanal wines since 2003. Located in the Tupungato region of the Uco Valley, at 3,300 feet above sea level, the vineyards enjoy ideal soil and climate conditions for wine growing.

Winemaker Gustavo Silvestri and Winegrower Patricia Conte work together in growing some of the finest grapes at the 50 hectares planted in the property and making outstanding and expressive wines that are true to their grape varieties and that reflect the unique characteristics of their terroir. With a total capacity of 116,000 liters, the winery is equipped with temperature-controlled stainless steel tanks and state-of-the-art equipment.

2014 Calathus Gran Reserva Malbec

Grape Variety: 100% Malbec

Vineyard Location: Tupungato, Uco Valley, Mendoza

Elevation: 3,300 feet

Yield: 2.68 tons per acre (6,000 kg per hectare)

Total Production: 10,000 btl

Alcohol: 13.9%

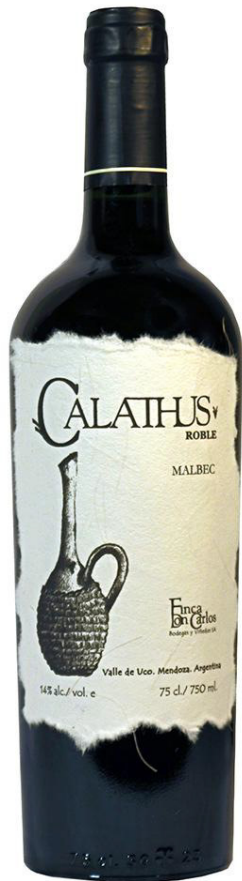

Total Acidity: 4.98 g/l

Volatile Acidity: 0.72 g/l

Residual Sugar: 2.75 g/l

Oak Aging: 12 months in second-use French 70% and American 30% oak barrels.

Tasting Notes: Dark violet color. Lively and complex aromas of plums, black currants, with mild notes of vanilla and spices. Medium-bodied, lively and well rounded. Complex and friendly flavors and smooth but solid tanins. Lingering flavors of plums and mild spices in the finish.

Calathus is a type of vase that was used in ancient Rome to store and serve wine.

